

Massachusetts Council on Compulsive Gambling

We understand the problem. We can help.

April 27, 2006

Contact: Margot Cahoon
617-426-4554 / margot@masscompulsivegambling.org

“2006 MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE ON GAMBLING PROBLEMS”

Public Invited to Attend

BOSTON, MA – People interested in learning more about problem gambling are welcome to attend the Massachusetts Council on Compulsive Gambling’s, “2006 Conference on Gambling Problems: Community, Clinical and Personal Approaches.” The event will be held at the University of Massachusetts, Boston Campus, on Friday, May 5, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The conference will include breakfast, lunch, workshop sessions and lectures by some of the country’s foremost experts in the field. Topics covered will include: Exposure to Gambling: Gambling Behavior and Public Health; Financial Planning in Recovery; Adolescents and Gambling: What’s the Attraction,” and more.

The 2006 Conference has been designed to increase the knowledge and skills of community and human service professionals who provide treatment and services to individuals who are impacted by social, mental, health or addictive disorders. The general public is also welcome to attend.

The cost to attend the Conference is $50 for all Massachusetts residents and human service providers. To register, please contact the Council at 617-426-4554 or register online at www.masscompulsivegambling.org/services/registration.php.

The Massachusetts Council on Compulsive Gambling is a private, non-profit health agency dedicated to reducing the social, financial and emotional costs of problem gambling. The Council provides information, education, advocacy and referral services for problem gamblers, their loved ones and the greater community.

###

190 High Street, Suite 5
Boston, MA 02110
617.426.4554
www.masscompulsivegambling.org